The Light Princess
By George MacDonald

Frequency of laugh* [0, 1, 2, 2, 1, 12, 3, 5, 6, 4, 2, 0, 1, 0, 0]
Frequency of smile* [1, 0, 0, 0, 1, 1, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 2]

The Light Princess is afflicted with an inability to take anything seriously. She laughs at everything, but never smiles until the last chapter, when her gravity returns.

“She never smiled.” – Chapter 6

Three methods to generate sentences:

Method 1: Each word must follow the previous word

Method 2: Each word
must follow the two previous words

Method 3: Each word
must follow the two previous words and be in the correct place in the sentence.

Method 1: "The moon was not come to marry?"

Method 2: "The princess laughed at a great butterfly."

Method 3: "The princess was distracted between hope and some other planet probably mercury."
